gence from the New York Times;

THE BALTIMORE PEAHODY INSTITUTE.
Mr. George Peabody arrived here yesterday, and is locked at the St. Nicholas Hotel. Mr. Peahody is on his way to Baltimore to be present on the occasion of inangarating his justitute on the 27th inst. We trust that his presence in Baltimore, with purposes so beneficent toward its inhabitants, may have a calming in-

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21, 1856.

Thomas De Quincey's essay on "Murder Considered as One of the Fine Arts" ought to be supplemented by a chapteron "Riots considered as a means of influencing elections." The writer who will undertake this subject may discuss the effect of the New Oriesns and Memphis massacres on the late fall campsign; the motives which led so many Radiest politicians to predict a riot at the meeting of the Philadelphia August convention, and during the visit of the President to Chit. Cago, and the determined efforts now beging put forth in Baltimore to bring about a colitision between the so-called loval and dragging of coat-talls as has been going on here for the last week or ac comid be witnessed mowhere else out of Donnybrook. Of course there is an immouse annount of talking to buncombe and an Infinity of gas and gasconade, but there are turbulent elements enough in this city of monuments, "Plug Culles," 'tilp Raps" and ''Blood Tubs," to render even the meeting about a trivial and sense in the president and Sense in the President to the ower of appointment; but that, as that industry of gas and gasconade, but there are turbulent elements enough in this city of monuments, "Plug Culles," 'tilp Raps" and ''Blood Tubs," to render even the meeting about a colitision between these ocaled love and the president is power to appoint on the duty of doing so. And lastly, because his power, and lastly, because his power, darks and penalty of such as that of the Geueral Assembly without in the sale was the sale and penalty as that of the Geueral Assembly without in a sale and penalty as that of the Geueral Assembly without in a sale and penalty as that of the Geueral Assembly without in a sale and penalty as that of the Geueral Assembly without in a sale and penalty as that of the Geueral Assembly without in a sale and penalty as that of the Geueral Assembly without in a sale and penalty as that of the Geueral Assembly without in a sale and penalty as that of the Geueral Assembly without in the state and penalt

I upon the whole, therefore, I have not doubt that it is given to the Governor aloue (the Legislature not being in session) to investigate into the truth of the alicyd misconduct of the Police Commissioners, and to remove them, if he be assisted that they have been guilty of "official misconduct."

There was nothing of special interest transpiring in the general markets to-day. Trade was moderately active in the various departments, and business localities presented an animated appearance. There was a good demand for flour, and an advance on atligrades, except fancy, has been entablished. There is continued activity in bale rore and bagging and prices are firm, with an upward teadency. Trensactions are mostly for planter's account, and in the aggregate are of considerable magnitude. Whisty is in active recover and necessary for the prices are fully is the aggregate are of counterance and the whisky is in active request and prices are fully maintained. Raw is selling at $2.9; rectified at from $6.50.00 to $2.50; one year old copper at $6.20.10 Steamboat and Railroad Work,
